Director of Children's Ministries

What do you do at Spring Lake? As a children's ministry director I get to envision what it would look like for God to meet with children at Spring Lake Church. Then I train and coach leaders who will carry out this vision with an army of volunteers. In reality, no two days of work ever look alike!

Education: B.S. in Bible/Bible Teaching from Columbia International University in Columbia, S.C.

How long have you been on staff here? I have been able to work as a volunteer for several years at SLC but came on staff in 2004.

Place of birth: I grew up in a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio, the land of slush, overcast summers and the Browns. I moved to a land of snow, really great summers and the Packers! Much better deal.

Books I love: I love a book that will transport me to another time in history. I also love authors that will stretch my thoughts about God like Packer, Tozer and Francis Schaefer.

In my CD player: I am at the mercy of my family when it comes to music. I listen to a wide variety of music that primarily comes out of their computers or Ipods.

Favorite Movie: Who couldn't be inspired by Jimmy Stewart in Mr. Smith Goes to Washington? However, I love all kinds of movies, especially those that inspire.

Family information: My family consists of my husband who keeps me focused on the right things, two girls who have flown the coop and are now in college, and one more wonderful teen daughter who attends a school for kids with special needs.

On living in Green Bay: Great place to raise a family; bad place to try to stay in shape.

What do you enjoy most to recharge? Time alone with a warm blanket and a good book.

Life Verse: Hebrews 12:1-2. Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith; who for the joy set before Him, endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
